Meet the Chef JAIME PEREZ

Jamie Perez, Speciality Outlet Chef of Hibachi at RODA Al Bustan, began his career in Philippines. After which he moved to Kuwait and Lebanon expanding his professional knowledge and exposure.

Chef Perez's talent of the culinary arts was recognised by Chef Robert in 2010 when he was transferred to RODA Al Bustan, where he trained for three months before transferring to the kitchen. Jamie Perez has since then never looked back. Throughout his years in U.A.E., Chef Perez has witnessed the growth of both Dubai and the culinary arts in the country.

HIGHLIGHTS

Sunil Patnaik, Restaurant Manager for a casual dining restaurant at RODA Al Bustan, holds exceptional credentials under his belt. Sunil brings with him a vast experience from different hotels in different countries. He started his professional career at Hyatt Regency, New Delhi, India, and then moved to Dubai and joined RODA Al Bustan.

“

To travel is to live, but good food marks it all. In Makan, we take our guests through a culinary journey. We let them feel the true taste of different gastronomy around the world, from the traditional Arab cuisine to Western, European and Asian cuisines.”

Sunil Patnaik

SIGNATURE Dishes

LAMB OUZI

Taste our traditional Lamb Ouzi made from freshest local ingredients at our Friday brunch offerings, along with live shawarma, falafel and other oriental delicacies.

FAJITAS AND TACOS

Fajitas and Tacos are our must try delicacies. Fajitas are normally strips of meat either grilled or sautéed (often with onions and peppers). They can be used in tacos, burritos, or served on their own or with tortillas on the side (corn or flour depending on preference).

Tango NIGHTS

Join us for an evening of dancing and fine dining at Roda Grill, enjoy good food from our a la carte menu, paired with premium Argentinean grape. Guests will get to enjoy the feel of Buenos Aires ambience!

Alternate Mondays
8:00pm onwards
